Crazy Bred is the raw and unforgettable memoir of Jason Aaron, a pro wrestling outcast who clawed his way to the top of the independent circuit.

Aaron's story is one of perseverance, determination, and redemption. He was born into a life of poverty and violence, and he turned to wrestling as a way to escape his demons. But the wrestling business is a tough one, and Aaron quickly learned that he was an outsider. He was too small, too slow, and too different from the other wrestlers.

But Aaron refused to give up. He worked harder than anyone else, and he never let anyone tell him that he couldn't do something. He eventually became one of the most successful independent wrestlers in the world, and he even competed in the WWE.

Crazy Bred is more than just a wrestling memoir. It's a story about overcoming adversity, following your dreams, and never giving up. It's a must-read for any fan of wrestling, or anyone who has ever dreamed of achieving something great.
