The book is divided into seven sections, each representing a different color of the rainbow. Each section features prayers, poems, and stories from a variety of religious traditions. The prayers are both traditional and contemporary, and reflect the full range of human experience. They are prayers of praise, thanksgiving, petition, and lament. They are prayers for peace, justice, and healing.

The illustrations in Prayer Of The World are just as stunning as the text. They are vibrant and colorful, and depict people from all walks of life coming together in prayer. The illustrations are a reminder that we are all connected, and that we are all part of something larger than ourselves.

Prayer Of The World is a book that will inspire and uplift readers of all ages. It is a book that will help us to see the world in a new light, and to appreciate the beauty and diversity of human experience. It is a book that will help us to come together in peace and unity, and to create a better world for all.
