Jean-Philippe Rameau: The Master of Harmony

Jean-Philippe Rameau was a French composer, music theorist, and organist who left an indelible mark on the Baroque era. His music is characterized by its rich and complex harmonies, which explore the boundaries of tonality and dissonance. In this collection, you'll find two of Rameau's most famous pieces:

- "Gavotte en Rondeau": A graceful and elegant dance piece that showcases Rameau's mastery of rhythm and melodic invention.
- "Rigaudon": A lively and energetic dance that captures the spirit of the French countryside.

Jean-Baptiste Lully: The Father of French Opera

Jean-Baptiste Lully was an Italian-born French composer who revolutionized the world of opera. His works are known for their dramatic intensity, melodic beauty, and elaborate orchestration. In this collection, we present one of Lully's most beloved pieces:

- "Air des Matelots": A haunting and evocative melody that transports us to the high seas and the adventures of sailors.

François Couperin: The Poetic Clavecinist

François Couperin was a French composer who was known for his exquisite keyboard works, which are characterized by their elegance, charm, and poetic expression. In this collection, we have selected two of Couperin's most enchanting pieces:

- "Les Barricades Mystérieuses": A whimsical and mysterious piece that evokes the image of a labyrinthine garden.
- "La Sultane": A graceful and exotic melody that transports us to the opulent world of the Orient.
